

To Our Valued Patrons

Like all other restaurants the Cliff House is currently closed and will remain so throughout this public health emergency as directed to do so. We've had our share of rough spots during the past 48 years here at the Cliff House and throughout the Bay Area. We've made it through 911, floods, fires and earthquakes and we will make it through this as well.

Stay Safe Bay Area!